

FAI/DAU
LUNCHTIME LEARNING SEMINAR SPEAKERS

JUDY S. DAVIS

Director, Office of Acquisition Management (OAM) for the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency

As Director, Office of Acquisition Management (OAM) for the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Judy S. Davis currently serves as the Procurement Executive. Her responsibilities extend to all matters of acquisition for the Agency. She oversees annual obligations averaging $1.3 billion with an operating budget of $33 million. Ms. Davis previously served as OAM's Deputy Director for two years.

Ms. Davis previously served as Division Director at the Naval Regional Contracting Center, Washington, DC and as Chief, National Weather Service Modernization Contracts for the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration under Department of Commerce.

Ms. Davis holds an MBA with a concentration in Procurement, Acquisition and Grants Management from the American University. In 1997, Ms. Davis was a Senior Executive Fellow at Harvard's JFK School of Government. Ms. Davis is a two-time recipient of the Meritorious Civilian Service Award for her contributions in the field of acquisition.

MARK E. KRZYSKO

Deputy Director of Defense Procurement & Acquisition Policy, Electronic Business Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition, Technology & Logistics

Mark Krzysko is the Deputy Director of Defense Procurement and Acquisition Policy. He is responsible for the oversight of the Acquisition eBusiness Process and the Portfolio Management of Acquisition eBusiness systems and application across the Department. He represents the Department at the Federal level for OMB's eGovernment initiative and the Integrated Acquisition Environment (IAE).

Mr. Krzysko holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Finance and a Master of General Administration, Financial Management from the University of Maryland, College Park, Maryland.