“The FAITAS site is hosted on a .mil network and has a DOD security certificate applied to it. Users receive the warning because they do not have the DOD root certificates installed on their workstation. There is no security risk to continue. Users can download and install the DOD root certificates on their workstations as they are publicly available. Download certificates at: <http://www.acq.osd.mil/root.html>. Once installed the warning messages will go away.” – FAI Helpdesk FAQs
