When to Use Equivalent/Fulfillment vs. External CL Activity Requests

Submit an Equivalent/Fulfillment Request when training:
- was completed external to FAI CSOD (i.e., you completed it directly with a commercial training provider)
- is equivalent to training that exists in the FAI CSOD training catalog

Submitting an Equivalent/Fulfillment Request is essential if the training satisfies a prerequisite or certification requirement.

However, Equivalent/Fulfillment Requests do not confer Continuous Learning Points (CLPs) and will not appear on your CLIP Dashboard. Therefore, you also need to submit an External Continuous Learning Activity Request for that training to earn CLPs.

You can and should submit an External Continuous Learning Activity Request for training or learning activities that are not equivalent to what exists in the FAI CSOD training catalog. Examples include: completing college/university courses, attending a training conference, etc.

EPA Continuous Learning (CL) Guidance

Guidance for CLPs

Continuous learning activities enhance the skills of acquisition professionals, affords opportunities for professional growth, and can improve the quality of services rendered. Federal Acquisition Certification (FAC) certified workforce members are required to earn Continuous Learning Points (CLPs) every two years to maintain their certification.

The agency Acquisition Career Manager (ACM) and supervisors shall work with acquisition workforce members to identify opportunities and determine the appropriate number of Continuous Learning Points (CLPs) obtained from each learning activity. Accounting for and documenting continuous learning activities is a mutual responsibility between the acquisition workforce member, supervisor and ACM.

Supporting Documentation

Supporting documentation must be submitted with all external training courses and events/activities CL requests (For example, training course certificate of completion, training agenda, redacted SF 50 with no personally identifiable information (PII), article publication - table of content with article title and author’s name or a memorandum signed by supervisor that attest and certify training/events /activities for requested CLPs - the memorandum can be electronically signed).

Express Classes (Administrative Role for ACM Only)

- All continuous learning (CL) external training, activities, and events not registered and completed in FAI CSOD with five or more participants, must be submitted to the ACM as an Express Class to avoid the need of inputting these training types as individual external training requests for CLPs.
- The Express Class feature in the CL module allows the ACM to create a specific course and upload a Microsoft Excel file with the participants email addresses, course date, start and end time, and CL points credited as a batch upload for such things as conferences, all as EPA annual mandatory training, conferences, all hands meeting, technical evaluation panel (TEP), brown bags training, etc. Therefore, DO NOT ENTER these CL activities as individual external training requests for CLPs.
- This Microsoft Excel file with the participants’ email addresses, course date, start and end time, and CL points credited must be provided to the ACM by host/facilitator of the training, activities, or events.
- There are no CLP certificates issued for completion of an Express Class. These training, activities, and events will appear in the transcript as “Completed.”
The following activities can generally be used to obtain CLPs:

Training/Education: CLPs may be earned through formal or informal training activities that are related to the acquisition workforce member’s job, including participating in self-directed study, presenting training, and taking higher education coursework.

Participating in Professional Organizations and/or their Events: CLPs may be earned for participating in professional organizations, attending events sponsored by them, and obtaining professional licenses or certifications. Membership in a professional organization alone will not be considered as fulfilling continuous learning requirements, however, participation in organizational leadership will be considered.

- Self-directed study programs must be approved by the employee’s supervisor.
- Before participating in professional organizations, workforce members must ensure that their participation is authorized by their agency and is permitted by ethics laws and regulations. Examples of activities that may qualify for CLPs include holding elected/appointed positions, such as committee leadership roles, or attending and/or presenting at educational conferences or meetings.

Publishing: Publishing articles related to acquisition are generally acceptable for CLPs. Points will only be awarded in the year published. Authors must comply with agency publication policy.

Participating in Experiential Activities: Experiential activities are those at-work experiences that serve to enhance workforce professional skills and improve agency acquisition delivery, such as rotational and developmental assignments or mentoring.

- CLPs accumulate for learning; simply performing an already understood work function SHOULD NOT be used to accumulate CLPs.
- Longer experiences assignments can be more beneficial than shorter experiences, but the granting of CLPs should be focused on what the workforce member has learned, rather than what they have done.
- Supervisors and workforce members should pre-define, as much as possible, the learning activities to be accomplished in each experience assignment and should work together to determine the appropriate number of CLPs that each experience will accumulate for the member.
- Mentoring of workforce members during experiential learning is encouraged, as is sharing of knowledge gained in an experiential assignment through reports, briefings, project designs or formal or informal training.
- Workforce members and supervisors should work together to identify qualifying experiences and their resulting CLP values. They should also seek and consider the ACM advice in the assignment of CLP values for activities not listed in the OMB OFPP/ FAI CL Guidance Listing.
