Suspension & Debarment Interview

Duc Nguyen

Suspension & Debarment Official
Environmental Protection Agency (EPA)

Duc is the Senior Debarring Official at the Environmental Protection Agency and Vice Chair of the Interagency Suspension and Debarment Committee (ISDC). His prior positions include Procurement Fraud Remedies Coordinator (Western Region) for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), Procurement Fraud and Irregularities Coordinator for the U.S. Army Materiel Command's (AMC) Acquisition Integrity Program, and lead attorney for contingency contracting at AMC.

Prior to joining the federal civil service, Duc served on active duty in the Army's Judge Advocate General's Corps (JAG). His JAG assignments included Associate Counsel (Contracts and Business Law) at AMC, Senior Defense Counsel at Fort Carson, CO, Chief of Military Justice for the 19th Theater Area Support Command (19th TAACOM), Republic of Korea, and Chief of Client Services for the 19th TAACOM. Prior to becoming a JAG, Duc was an Army logistics officer serving as platoon leader, company executive officer, and battalion staff officer with the 2nd Infantry Division and the 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault).

Duc received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Cornell University, his JD from the University of Washington School of Law, and his LLM from the U.S. Army Judge Advocate General's Legal Center and School. He also expects to receive an LLM in Government Procurement Law from the George Washington University Law School in 2017. Duc is a member of the Washington Bar.
